REGISTRATION

Over 1,700 colleagues have already registered for Stockholm 2017. Don’t miss out and register today. Registration fees for EUPHA and SASM members are EUR 690. Non-members pay EUR 770, students EUR 420 (all including VAT).

SPEAKERS UPDATE

Gender differences in coronary artery disease in Europe – presentation of factsheets
Lunch Symposium, Thursday 2 November, 12:15–13:15, Room K16
The GenCAD consortium has produced factsheets for health professionals and the general public on gender differences in coronary heart disease and its prevention. With Vera Regitz-Zagrosek (Charité, Berlin), Karin Schenck-Gustafson (Karolinska), Alan White (Centre for Men’s Health)

Successful health innovation: from the ‘what’ to the ‘how’
Plenary Session, Friday 3 November, 13:40–14:40, Victoria Hall
Insights and lessons on successful health system transformation focusing on how to create a receptive context for innovation. With Hans Kluge (WHO), Josep Figueras (Observatory), Natasha Azzopardi Muscat (EUPHA), Rafael Bengoa (Spain), Walter Ricciardi (Italy) a.o.

A fresh take on policy for pharmaceutical research: ensuring access to medical innovation and tackling medical gaps
Lunch Symposium Friday 3 November, 12:30-13:30, Room K16
Organised by the Federal Ministry of Health and Women’s Affairs, Austria, with Clemens-Martin Auer (Austria), Suerie Moon (Harvard, USA), Josep Figueras (Observatory)

PRECONFERENCES UPDATE

Pre-conferences are open to all delegates but registration is required. Click on the titles for detailed information or click here for the full programme. Registration for preconferences is through the EPH Conference registration panel. Registration fees vary between EUR 20 and EUR 140.

Waterloo or Mamma Mia? Implementation of innovations in public health policy and practice.
Organised by EUPHA Section on Public health policy and practice, and others. Supported by CHAFEA (EU), reduced fees

Sharing health information and evidence with policy makers: tools for transferring knowledge into policy action.
Organised by EUPHA Section on Public health monitoring and reporting, and others. Supported by CHAFEA (EU), reduced fees

Creating a sustainable people-centred health workforce in Europe: how to make it happen?
Organised by EUPHA proposed Section on Health workforce research a.o. Supported by WHO

To achieve gender equality – the importance to reach young men. Organised by the Public Health Agency of Sweden

INHERIT – environmental sustainability, health, equity and behaviour change. Organised EuroHealthNet on behalf of the INHERIT project. Updated programme

Opportunities and challenges arising from European integration for Health Systems in Small States. Organised by SMShealth.eu - Jean Monnet Network of European Integration, Small States and Health, Maastricht University and University of Malta. Updated programme.

ASPHER Young Researchers’ Forum. Full programme now available

Challenges for design of intervention studies. Organised by EUPHA Section on Social Security, Work and Health. Updated programme

Mental health and architecture. Organised by EUPHA Sections on Public mental health, Urban public health, and others. Updated programme

Planetary Health in Practice. Organised by Karolinska Institutet, Stockholm Environment Institute (SEI), Stockholm County Council

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

Create your own personal conference programme and add abstracts for the selected sessions via the online programme or App (available soon) Having a personal programme saves you time in finding your way in the conference. To use this function, go to Conference programme, log in and select the option ‘Add me to this activity’.

STOCKHOLMSMÄSSAN

The 10th EPH Conference is held in the modern Stockholmsmässan, only a short ride by train from the centre of Stockholm.

STOCKHOLM 2017: EVERYBODY WILL BE THERE