1. Raise your organisation's profile at Dublin 2023

In November 2023, Dublin is hosting the 16th European Public Health (EPH) Conference where you can reach close to 2 000 international delegates attending a fully packed programme over four days. At the Dublin 2023 Conference, keynote speakers from international standing and varying disciplines will address a broad range of public health issues.

The Dublin 2023 Conference offers you exceptional opportunities to network, raise your profile in the public health community and gain valuable access to influential opinion-leaders, policy-makers and researchers.

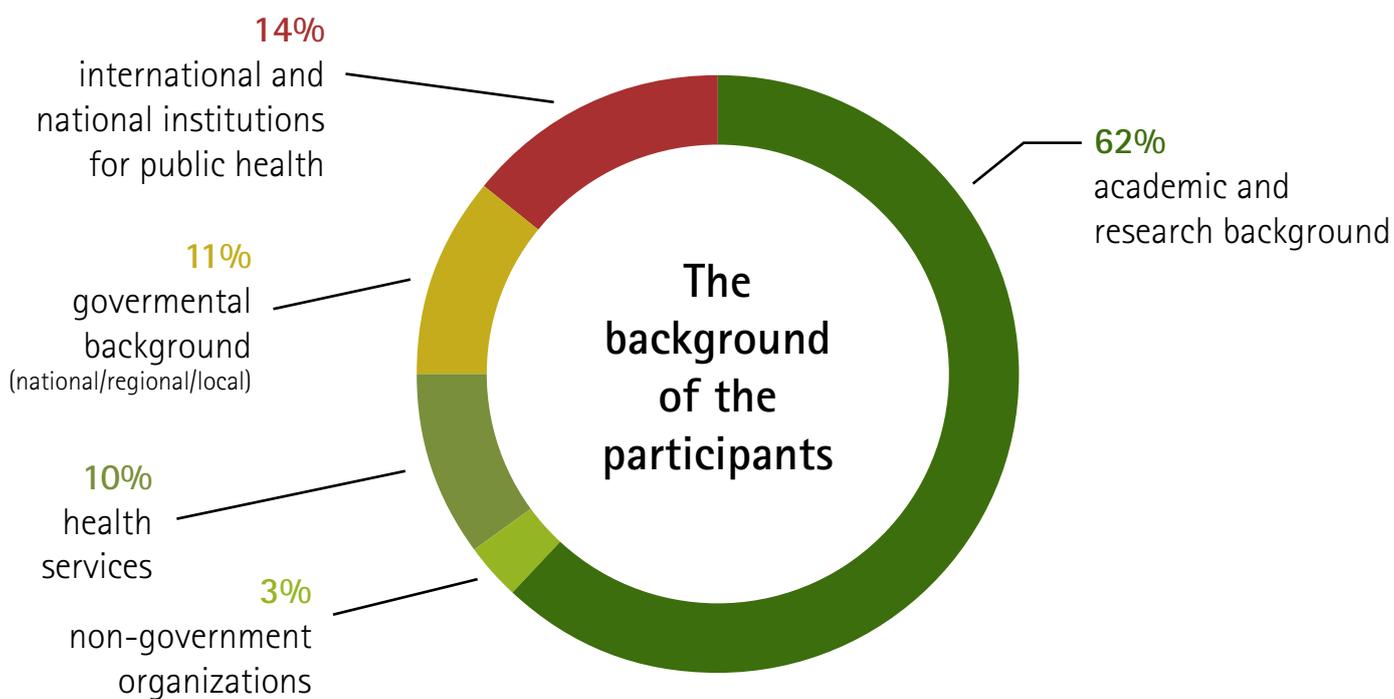

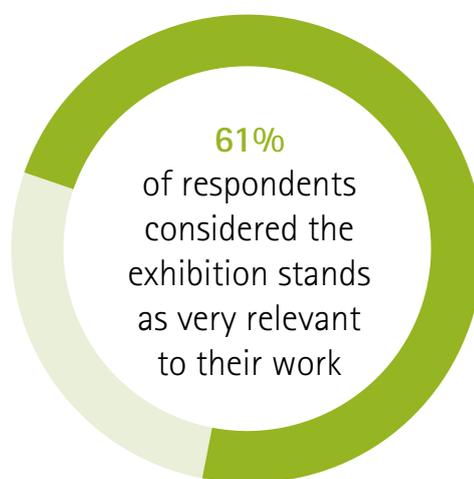

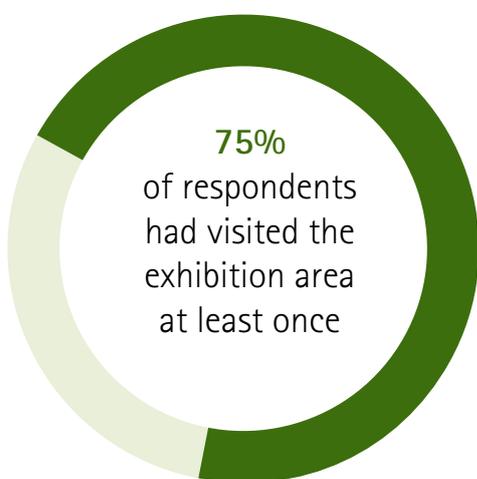

This high-level event provides the perfect opportunity to network with public health professionals, including researchers, education specialists, policy makers and representatives from international and European organisations.

Becoming a co-organiser, sponsor or exhibitor at Dublin 2023 will enable your institute or organisation to demonstrate its expertise and showcase its innovative approach and activities, maintain visibility with delegates and create new contacts in the European public health community.

3 ■ About us

The 16th European Public Health Conference is organised by the EPH Conference Foundation, a non-governmental and not-for-profit organisation, established at the initiative of the European Public Health Association (EUPHA) which is also a co-organiser of the conference.

EPH Conference Foundation

The mission of the EPH Conference Foundation is to contribute to promoting greater health and well-being for the population in Europe by organising scientific conferences on public health in Europe on an annual basis. The conferences bring together public health professionals, including researchers, education and training specialists and policy makers from across Europe and beyond to develop new thinking and find meaningful solutions for future health challenges.

In organising the conference programme, the EPH Conference Foundation works together in partnership with a wide array of international public health organisations. Over the years, the EPH Conferences, which started as EUPHA Conferences more than 25 years ago, have grown into the largest annual public health event in Europe.

EUPHA

EUPHA is an umbrella organisation for national (public) health associations in Europe. EUPHA is an international, multidisciplinary, scientific organisation, bringing together around 20 000 public health experts from all European countries. EUPHA unites 44 national associations of public health, 28 institutional members, 7 individuals and 2 global members from 47 countries. EUPHA aims to be a leading scientific and independent voice in the field of public health and health services by building capacity and knowledge in the field of public health and health services and by supporting practice and policy decisions through scientific evidence.

EUPHA is dedicated to working in partnership with European and international intergovernmental and non-governmental organisations as well as with national institutes and organisations that are aligned with EUPHA's values and commitment to improve current and future health in Europe. In 2022, EUPHA has partnerships with 15 international organisations.

4. Host city & venue

Dublin

Dublin, Ireland's capital, is a city that truly captures your imagination with cobbled alleys, Viking remains and Georgian squares. Dublin's history goes back over a thousand years. Step back in time in this city full of literary landmarks, from the James Joyce Tower to Trinity College, alma mater of many of Ireland's greatest writers.

Steeped in history and youthful energy, Dublin is a medieval city where the charming and cosmopolitan converge in delightful diversity. Fine museums and art galleries chronicle Dublin's long and colourful past, while the pubs and cafés buzz with traditional and contemporary entertainment.

Throughout Dublin City and County you will find an abundance of visitor attractions to discover and explore, from the most majestic museums to more modern centres of entertainment. Whether your interest is sport, history, art or literature, whether you want to follow a heritage trail, visit a zoo, eat in a castle or follow in the footsteps of Dublin's many musical greats, there's something for everyone in Dublin and a story at every glance.

Convention Centre Dublin

Located in the heart of Ireland's vibrant, popular and historic capital city, The CCD is just 15 minutes from Dublin airport. A convenient city centre location and excellent transport links make The CCD easily accessible whether you are travelling from within Ireland, the UK, mainland Europe, or indeed anywhere in the world.

Served by over 20 000 competitively priced bedrooms within a 10km radius, including 6 000 within walking distance, EPH Conference delegates can choose from a range of accommodation options to suit all tastes and budgets. A host of facilities, including many of the city's museums, galleries, the Guinness Storehouse and the famous Temple Bar area, are within walking distance or a short tram ride away. Its central location makes The CCD the perfect choice for those who want to combine business and leisure, and get a taste of Dublin's bars, restaurants and nightlife, during their stay.

The CCD has hosted events ranging from 5 to 5 500 delegates and offers 22 flexible halls, meeting rooms and boardrooms including a 2 000 seat auditorium. The entire venue is finished to the highest specifications, and incorporates the latest technology including wi-fi for up to 22 000 devices. The CCD's aim is to offer conference and event organisers, as well as conference delegates, an unrivalled event experience.

8 ■ Exhibition at Dublin 2023

As part of the Dublin 2023 Conference an exhibition area will be located in the centre of all other conference activities such as plenary and parallel sessions, poster walks and catering area. Apart from being present at the exhibition, there is a wide range of options available to make yourself visible at this exciting conference. An exhibition booth remains the most effective way to demonstrate new products, disseminate information and attract interest from new and existing contacts. From previous EPH Conferences we know that delegates consider the exhibition area an essential feature of the Conference.

9. Code of Good EPH Conference Foundation practice

for the collaboration with partners and commercial contributors

The EPH Conference Foundation is dedicated to clear governance and transparency. The purpose of this code is to organise the relationship between the Foundation and partners and commercial contributors and to provide an ethical and positive approach to co-operation and partnership.

Funds are not acceptable from partners and commercial contributors whose activities include those incompatible with broader public health objectives (for example, tobacco products and arms manufacturers). The acceptability of donations from partners and commercial contributors whose activities are related to the work of the Foundation should be determined in accordance with the present code.

10. Registration fees

Provisional registration fees for delegates are as follows. Note they are based on registration fees for Berlin 2022 so you may expect a small increase.

Delegates	Registration fees incl. VAT
EUPHA Members early	650
Non-members early	730
EUPHA Members late	740
Non-members late	820
